Camp Behavior:

Our staff at TWIGS Kids would like your child to have the best experience possible here! Thus, all participants must understand and follow the company rules. These guidelines and expectations are in place to provide safety for both; your child and our staff. Please go over all information with your child and have them sign at the end of this section.

TWIGS General Rules for Kids

- 1. Listen and follow instruction from ALL staff members 2. Stay in assigned group 3. Be Kind

Steps when staff experience any undesirable behavior:

Step 1: Staff will question whether or not the child knew the behavior was wrong. We will repeat the ruling and check for comprehension; we may ask for them to repeat back to us.

Step 2: 1 Verbal Warning with Exact Consequences. If child repeats the already discussed undesirable behavior that there will be a consequence; typically, a time out.

Step 3: Consequence: Time Out– the standard age-appropriate time out is for 1 min of the child's age; 7 years old= 7 minutes. Questioned for comprehension again to not repeat undesirable behavior, apology if necessary, and review to help each child take responsibility for their actions and emotions.

If the same or multiple different undesirable behavior continues and Time Outs don't seem to help the situation, then the child will be asked to leave for the remainder of the program's day and documentation will be kept on file. Notes will be sent home on behavior to keep communication with parents as problems arise. We may request a parent meeting as well. Probations, suspensions, and expulsion from the program can result from the child's behavior.

Behaviors that warrant IMMEDIATE dismissal from our Program:

1. Pure defiance – won't do anything that they are told or just saying "no" on simple tasks told to the group such as "line up" or "sit in a circle"
2. Yelling, screaming, and fighting with teachers or other campers
3. Hitting or pushing (not keeping hands/ body parts to themselves)
4. Spitting or biting
5. Foul language

Thank you in advance for your cooperation!
